large numbers in front of some of the formulas are called coefficients. These numbers are used to balance the equation because chemical reactions must obey the Law of Conservation of Matter. The number of atoms of each element on both sides of the equation must be equal because matter cannot be created or destroyed. When balancing equations, the only numbers that can be changed are coefficients. Remember that subscripts must never be changed in order to balance an equation.

III. Balance the following equations:

Mabel Chinnery was visiting her mother's grave and taking pictures of her husband waiting in the car. Four of their children escaped, while the bodies of their other five children were nowhere to be found. It's perfect for people who get distracted easily or have noisy roommates. Gigantic Diamond Hole That Can Suck HelicoptersIn Russia, there's a giant man-made hole, Mirny Mine, where an unusual amount of diamonds have been found. The murders remain unsolved. Colony Collapse DisorderSince 1869, there's been a phenomenon called colony collapse disorder. The area of the house where her body was found barely had any damage. This baffled investigators because it would take extremely high temperatures for the body to turn to ashes, but the house wasn't affected. The Original "Milk Carton Boy" There were no clues on 12-year-old Johnny Gosch's sudden disappearance in 1982. The biggest stranding occurred in the 1800's. Before the attack, weird occurrences happened on the farm. Members of his squadron quickly spotted him in the photograph and have no explanation on how his face could have shown up, other than the figure being his ghost. Sailing StonesRocks that strangely move along the ground with no help from gravity and no witnesses are known as sailing stones. Gas-resistant PramIn 1938, Britain demonstrated gas-resistant masks and prams as a safety precaution for the war. Newspapers suspected the military actually covered up the real story. Tiananmen Square Tank ManThe Tank Man became internationally known by an iconic photo. Recently, 145 whales were stranded and died on November 26, 2018. Black Knight SatelliteSome people believe the object in the NASA's captured photo is of extraterrestrial origin and has been orbiting the earth for 13,000 years. The Hessdalen LightsUnexplained lights travel in Hessdalen Valley of Norway during both the day and night. BloopIn 1997, the U.S. National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) detected an ultra-low-frequency, high amplitude underwater sound. In the 1980s, a teenager reported that the entity wrecked his car and ever since then the story of the Lizard Man has been kept alive. Phoenix LightsThousands of people saw bizarre unidentified flying objects that lit up the sky in Arizona and Nevada on March 13, 1997. In the middle of the night, something forced them to cut their way out of their tent and into the freezing cold. Staff are puzzled on who or what the figure could be and we're puzzled about why people still work there after seeing the video. The Deaths of Kris Kremers and Lisanne FroomTwo Dutch hikers died during a trip to Panama. In 2014, scientists suggested ice, water, and wind may be the culprits after using time-lapse photography and GPS to follow the movements. Sodder Children DisappearanceOn December 24, 1945, the Sodder home was destroyed by a fire. No one knows how he could have ingested the poison, but people suspect he was murdered. Baby Window CagesDoctors convinced people it was a good idea to attach strange wire cages to windows of high buildings in order for their babies to get air from the 1920s to 1930s. Scientists can't agree on the reason. The passengers and crew could have stayed and waited for help. Tamam Shud CaseAn unidentified dead man was found on a beach in South Australia in 1948. Scientists can't confirm why the strandings are so massive, but predators, illness, navigational errors, and tides falling could be reasons. Experts don't know what caused their deaths. Missing Passengers and Crew of MV Joyita25 people mysteriously disappeared from the merchant vessel, MV Joyita in 1955. His burned belongings were investigated, but no one could figure out what burned him because his story checked out. Ghost Of Freddy JacksonFreddy Jackson, an air mechanic, died in 1919 and his squadron held a funeral for him before the group photo was taken. Antikythera MechanismThis artifact doesn't look like much, but scientists believe it was an important tool that calculated astronomical events in ancient Greece. Strange events have happened all over the world, such as hackers hijacking broadcasts, fairy circles, unsolved deaths, and more. The parents believe it was arson due to a mysterious phone call right before the fire, their phone line being cut, and someone moving a ladder on their house, while the fire department claims it was caused by an electrical issue. The serial killer was never caught. Spontaneous Human Combustion Of Mary ReeserIn 1951, a few of Reeser's body parts were found among piles of ash possibly due to spontaneous human combustion. The hackers remain unidentified. No one else can confirm this meeting and Johnny was never seen again. The First South Pole MurdererIn Antarctica, Rodney David Marks mysteriously died from methanol poisoning at work. Many conspiracy theories surround the unknown woman. The Bizarre Death of Elisa LamOn February 19, 2013, Lam's body was found in a water tank on top of Downtown LA's infamous Cecil Hotel when guests were complaining about the color and taste of the water. As of 2006, the number of disappearances has dramatically risen around the world. NASA claims the object is merely space debris like a lost thermal blanket from one of their missions. Fairy Circles in AfricaFairy circles look like polka dots have invaded the ground. The hacker also mooned the camera and was spanked with a flyswatter by the accomplice. The reported aircraft was a meteorological balloon. Chinnery immediately noticed a figure resembling her mother in the backseat. The lights can be bright white, yellow, or red. Hampton Court GhostSecurity cameras caught a ghostly figure opening the fire doors at the Hampton Court in October 2003. Her skull was shrunken to the size of a teacup. The Cecil Hotel is home to 16 strange deaths. The parents suspect they were kidnapped because the father had problems with the Sicilian Mafia. Scientists aren't sure of the crater's origin, hypotheses include meteor, volcano and gas sources. On November 22, 1987, residents of Chicago, Illinois saw two individuals take over their television screens. Photo experts have investigated the photo and have not found any tampering. Patomskiy CraterA 350-year-old rock formation located in Siberia has scientists scratching their heads. Six of them died from hypothermia and the others from physical trauma including a fractured skull and serious chest fractures. They also committed crimes together. The Cleveland Torso MurdererIn the 1930s a serial killer, who dismembered his victims, was terrorizing Cleveland, Ohio. Parts of their bodies were discovered, but the cause of death was never solved. The airspace above the hole is reported to be off limits because it can suck in anything flying overhead. His identity and the story of what happened to him remain unknown. Massive Whale Strandings in New ZealandIn New Zealand, over 656 whales were stranded in February 2017. When the boat was found, it was in bad condition and tilting to one side, but it's buoyancy made it unsinkable. The Back Seat GhostDon't you hate it when ghosts show up in the back seat when you're driving? Scientists and experts work hard to solve mysteries but some questions just can't be answered. TrepanningAround the world during ancient times, humans drilled holes into each others' skulls in a process called trepanning. The event is the second-largest stranding in New Zealand. These rocks leave behind a trail proving they have moved. More of its mysteries are still being solved today. A few days before the murders, one of the house keys went missing, footprints were found leading to the house, but not away from the house, and the family heard footsteps in the attic. The Mysterious "Babushka Lady"An unknown woman, now called the Babushka Lady, may have taken photographs of JFK the exact moment he was shot because on films from other witnesses she can be seen holding a camera over her face as JFK rode near her. The cause of her death remains unsolved. A pattern of marks was on his chest. Experts have no idea what causes these rings. The Falcon Lake IncidentStefan Michalak claims he encountered a UFO and learned his lesson when the flying disk burned him at Falcon Lake in Canada on May 20, 1967. His mother claims he came to visit her in 1997 with an unidentified man, informing her that he was a victim of a pedophile ring and was too old to stay in it. Nine ski hikers mysteriously died in the Ural Mountains of Russia. Their camera was found with normal photos of the two along with strange flash photos in the darkness. Naga Fireballs in ThailandAlso known as the Mekong lights or ghost lights, the phenomenon occurs along the Mekong River each year.

Answers to questions #15-#18: 15. B. 16. A. 17. E. 18. G. Vectors are added by a head-to-tail method and the resultant is drawn from the tail of the first vector to the head of the last vector. So if two vectors are added - say B is added to A (as in A + B) - then first A is drawn and the tail of B is placed at the head of A.
